

A black and white photograph of a grid with two dark, curved objects. The grid is composed of several rectangular cells. Two dark, curved objects, possibly pieces of wood or metal, are positioned diagonally across the grid. One object is in the upper right, and the other is in the lower right. A thin, straight line runs diagonally from the middle left towards the bottom right, intersecting the grid lines. The background is light and textured, with some small dark spots and scratches.
